Lesson A

Clothes

What kinds of clothes do you like to wear?

Kayo Nouguchi, 16, high school student

Well, we don't have to wear uniforms at our school, so I like to wear pants, a sweater, and comfortable shoes.

Rick Govia, 27, accountant

I have to wear a suit and tie to work. After work, I just want to go home and put on jeans and an old sweater. You know, something comfortable.

Louisa Vandermeer, 32, advertising executive

I like to wear designer clothes, because I need to look good for work. So I usually wear dressy pants or a nice skirt, with a jacket and a blouse.

1 Getting started

 A  Listen. What kinds of clothes do Kayo, Rick, and Louisa usually wear?

Figure it out → B Circle the words to make true sentences about the people above. Then make three true sentences about yourself. Tell a partner.

1. Kayo has to / doesn't have to wear a uniform.
2. Rick wants to / doesn't want to wear comfortable clothes after work.
3. Louisa needs to / doesn't need to wear nice clothes to work.

2 Grammar Like to, want to, need to, have to 🎧 🔊 Unit 8 Shopping

What kinds of clothes do you like to wear? I like to wear casual clothes. I don't like to wear suits.	What do you want to wear tonight? I want to wear my new outfit. I don't want to wear my old dress.
Do you have to wear a suit to work? Yes, we do. We have to wear a suit and tie. No, we don't. We don't have to wear a suit.	Do you need to buy new shoes? Yes, I do. I need to get some sneakers. No, I don't. I don't need to buy new shoes.
